

BOOST YOUR EARNING & IMPACT POTENTIAL

Declare a Minor in Sustainable Mineral Resources

Available for ANY major, the SMR Minor degree will help you stand out to employers seeking cutting-edge skills and interdisciplinary knowledge.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

School of Mining & Mineral Resources

REGISTER FOR THESE COURSES TODAY!

MIN 226: A Balanced Future: Sustainability & Minerals

Examine the interconnected environmental, social, technical, and economic challenges of supplying mineral resources with zero harm.

Tuesdays & Thursdays, 9:30-10:45 am
Social Sciences, Room 308

Questions? Contact David Hogan: davidehogan@arizona.edu

MIN 236: Materials, Societies & Choices

Explore decision-making in the context of earth materials and the challenges that arise from the many diverse stakeholders.

Tuesdays & Thursdays, 11:00-12:15 pm
Mines & Metallurgy, Room 213

Questions? Contact mining@arizona.edu

MNE 201: Nonrenewable Resources & World Civilizations

Explore how civilizations have formed, extracted, & utilized resources, shaping historical events.

Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays, 11:00-11:50 am
Manuel Pacheco ILC, Room 140

Questions? Contact Isabel Barton: fay1@arizona.edu

$2000 SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Application Deadline: October 30, 2024

Scholarships are available to any major. Just declare the SMR minor, complete a brief online application and write a 500-word essay with a statement of interest in and importance of sustainability in mining and mineral resources.

Additional Eligibility Criteria:

Undergrad student • minimum GPA 3.0 • must be degree-seeking

More information can be found here:

mining.arizona.edu/undergraduate_minor

LEARN MORE
& REGISTER

